Democratic Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ALLAN G. THURMAN,
OF OHIO.

FOR CONGRESS,
JAMES B. McCREAIRY,
OF MADISON.

The man to be utterly pulverized is Mr. Wood Dunlap, of Lancaster, Republican candidate for Congress against our Mr. Jeems McCreairey.

Two Danish steamers collided near Halifax, last week, and the Geiser was sunk, while the Thin-galle was badly damaged. One hundred and five persons were lost mainly from St. Paul and Chiago.

A CUTIN' AN' A SLASHIN'.

A man named Dilger got his name in the Louisville papers, last week. He was beating a woman named Burns, because she would not give him money. Two policemen went to arrest him, and he killed both of them with a Bowie-knife. Their names were Jones and Rosenvein. They hit Dilger several heavy blows with their clubs, but he laid them out with a few rapid and well-directed thrusts. He is now in jail. The Louisville papers, and there are half a dozen, gave Dilger five or six columns apiece, and had all the pictures in, with diagrams and other extras. Dilger is a dandy.

PAK NOBLE FEATRUM.

McCreary is re-nominated in the Eighth Kentucky and C. L. Breckinridge in the Second Arkansas. Both these Congressmen are law-taxers and faithful servants of the people. Breckinridge has distinguished himself as a lieutenant of Mills in the battle with Reel, McKinley and Kelley on the Taxing committee of the House, and McCreary was one of the first rebels against the rule of Randall as the author of all legislation through the holding back of appropriation bills. The Herald sends greeting to both these patriots, and wishes them the election they seem sure to receive. —Chicago Herald.

ANOTHER FLOP.

Mr. Alfred Surker, of New York, a Republican, and formerly a prominent manufacturer at Indianapolis, writes: "I have the highest regard for Mr. Harrison, and great respect for his character. He was my lawyer for twenty years; but I cannot stand his platform, and for the first time in my life I shall vote the Democratic ticket this fall. I shall do this simply on the tariff reform issue, and because Mr. Cleveland has made an eminently satisfactory President. There are a great many business men in New York, who heretofore supported the Republican party, who will now vote for Cleveland because his administration has been so satisfactory to the business interests of this country. In fact, that is the trend of sentiment among the business men of New York."

PREMIUM LIST OF THE NEW MADISON COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION. Held August 11th, 12th, 13th, and 14th, at Belpoint, Kentucky.
